

SEYCHELLES METEOROLOGICAL AUTHORITY

Be part of our team and take the challenge to contribute in delivering dynamic and innovative services to support sustainable development, help to safeguard life and property and to achieve our local and international obligations.

VACANCY

Engineer (B4) – 1 Post

Salary: Depending on qualification and experience plus Scheme of Service allowances

Scope of work:

To install complex Automatic weather stations, telecommunication systems and computer based system for the organization; Assist Senior Engineer in planning, designing, improve and modify data acquisition networks; conduct market search in order to purchase equipment that can be used for specific meteorological purposes; assist Senior Engineer in managing and implementing projects involving significant financial, equipment, staff resources and technical complexity; diagnose instruments and equipment fault logically by observing symptoms and trace and systematically rectify their causes; track and trace sources of errors in measurement and ensure that instrument is maintained to standards and calibrated in order to minimize systematic errors.

Minimum Post Requirement:

Bachelor's degree in electrical/Electronic/Telecommunication and Computer Engineering with five years' satisfactory work experience.

Other Prerequisite:

Candidate should possess a driving license. Must be committed, reliable and can organize and work effectively without constant supervision and under pressure at times.

Must maintain a good pattern of punctuality, disciplined, respectable.

Able to work in a team and interacts well with other coworkers.

Closing Date: 5th July 2024

Interested candidates should forward their applications & C.V to:

Human Resource Officer

Seychelles Meteorological Authority

P O Box 1604, Victoria, Mahé,

Email: g.lafortune@meteo.gov.sc